JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE TURNING POINT.—The most critical period in our lives is between boyhood and manhood. We then take the path that leads to usefulness or rush headlong into the ways of infamy and ruin. Our destiny seems then to be suspended for a moment upon a pivot. A wrong step may seal our destiny for time and eternity, whilst a decisive stand, taken on the side of virtue, may strew our path through life with flowers.

At this critical period there are some things carefully to be avoided and other things punctually to be performed. Then we are undergoing a most critical examination. Wise and prudent men are pondering every word we utter, and critically watching every act we perform. They do not expect to find us as wise as the grey headed sire, but they do expect us to walk in wisdom's ways. They expect us to start life's journey in the practice of virtue and morality. The things to be avoided at this period are idleness, bad company and irregular and irreligious conduct.

The easiest way any young man ever undertook to blight his temporal prospect, blast his hopes for eternity and render himself a curse to society, is to turn idler at twenty-one. It is hard to imagine the dwarfing effects which idleness has upon the soul. In beggars words to describe it. Any trade or occupation, however humble and degraded it may be regarded, is preferable to idleness. A man may sweep the streets and be as happy as a King and as holy as a saint; but no man can play idler and be either happy or holy. Idleness leads us to associate with bad men, and associating with bad men leads us to associate ultimately and forever with lost spirits.

Irregular conduct at twenty one may keep us out of useful and lucrative positions all our days. Irreligious conduct may cast a suspicion upon every act of our lives, and cause us to heave many a bitter sigh. It may be that in the exercise of His wonderful grace, God may reclaim the wayward youth and make a child of Jesus of him in his old age; but this is very doubtful, and even if such should be the case, the sins and faults of our youth are no honor to us in old age. The recollections of our past sins are always attended with pain. The sins of our youth cover our moral characters with scars which we see and feel although they may be invisible to others. God may pardon the crimes which produced these moral deformities, but He never removes them. Like the cuts which may have been inflicted upon our bodies, they may heal up and get well, but the marks of the wound goes with us to the grave. The only way by which a young man can expect to spend a serene old age, loved and respected by his associates and enjoying the approbation of his own conscience and basking in the smiles of his heavenly father, is by being diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.—Yorkville Enquirer.

KINDNESS.—There are some things that cost us very little and yet they are worth more to us in our journey through life than coffers of gold. It costs us no more to be courteous in our manners in our associations with our fellow men, than to be harsh and morose. Yet the former secures for us the esteem and respect of all those with whom we have any dealings, and the latter makes us hated and detested. We lose sight of our own interest when we resort to harshness to accomplish our ends. In nine cases out of ten more can be done by kindness than even by force. Brute beasts appreciate kindness and reciprocate it, but their malicious passions are aroused by harsh treatment. Cruel treatment may make us feared and dreaded, but never loved and revered. There is far more power in a smile than a scowl.

God deals very kindly with all his creatures. The last thing He does is to treat any of His creatures harshly. Never does He resort to this but when kindness will answer no purpose. He hears and answers the cry of the young lion, watches the falling of a sparrow, opens His hand and liberally supplies the wants of every thing that lives. He crowns his people with loving kindness and tender mercy. The kind treatment which we receive from God should incite us to be kind and gentle to all those with whom we are brought in contact. We would thus open up a fountain of pure bliss from which we may always quaff draughts of fruition.—Yorkville Enquirer.

SAID a noble woman: "I am not afraid to live alone, but I dare not marry unworthily." Is not this true heroism? The woman who can bear the burden of life alone—submits cheerfully to a single life when circumstances have been unkind—who chooses it for the sake of loyalty to a high ideal, is a brave woman. There is an element of grandeur in her composition, and she is so far superior to those who marry for "a home," or for "convenience," or from fear of becoming "old maids," that there is no comparison between them. But after all, the woman who does this simply demands to be let alone. She begs that you will not suppose her insensible to a stab because she does not cry out. She has her pride and her delicacy. She urges no claims upon admiration, but she has no consciousness of disgrace. One would naturally prefer swift death by a sharp blade to a contemptuous hacking with a dull weapon; and the dullards who exercise their weak wits upon her should be pilloried by public scorn.

The late Thomas H. Benton, thus referred to the influence of his mother, and the part which her teachings had in forming his sturdy character:

"My mother asked me never to use tobacco, and I have never touched it from that to the present day; she asked me not to game, and I have never gambled, and I can not tell who is winning and who is losing in games that can be played; she admonished me, too, against hard drinking, and whatever capacity for endurance I have at present, and whatever usefulness I may attain in life, I have attributed to having complied with her pious and correct wishes. When I was seven years of age she asked me not to drink, and then I made a resolution of total abstinence, at a time when I was sole constituent of my own body, and that I have adhered to it through all time, I owe to my mother.

A wild cat five feet long and weighing forty five pounds, has been killed in Connecticut, after a sharp conflict, in which he killed three dogs.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of toil and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one- half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation durning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

MOORE AND SINCLAIR.

What is now too disgraceful for these two Radical brothers to engage in? Who is willing to trust them? Since their vote against Malone's resolution, summoning Littlefield and Swepson to answer for frauds with which they are charged, who can have confidence in them? We have no hesitation in saying, we would trust Littlefield before we would either of his defenders.

Here $7,000,000 of State bonds are, or should be, in the hands of these two men, Littlefield and Swepson; they have given no security for the proper application of the bonds. They have been absent from the city for more than sixty days. They are daily charged in both Houses of the Legislature with fraud. Governor Holden has been heard, in private, months ago, to speak of their fraudulent misapplication of State bonds; he is as well aware of it as William Moore is, notwithstanding his guilty silence. Yes, we say guilty silence, for having spoken of the fraud in private, he should have communicated, long ago, to the Legislature and the public what he has heard relative to the fraudulent use of State bonds by Railroad Presidents, and have taken steps for their removal. Moore's objection to simply telegraphing for his two friends, Littlefield and Swepson, charged with fraud, is sufficient to damn him in the estimation of honest men, now and forever. Hear him, as he is reported: "Mr. Moore, thought the matter had better be postponed until some disposition had been made of the half dozen bills and resolutions on the same matter, now pending in this General Assembly."

Again Mr. Moore is reported as saying he "was as much as any other man in favor of the gentleman having any witness before them that they wished, but he thought the introduction of these innumerable resolutions looking to the same end, was intended by gentlemen of the other side to make party capital. He thought the matter had better be postponed until the return of Mr. Pou, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, and until after the consideration of the bill introduced by the gentleman from Tyrell (Mr. Jarvis) repealing certain sections and chapters of the Public Laws authorizing the collection of special taxes."

How contemptible, for one, who had the raising of a gentleman! Littlefield has sold the State with some $7,000,000 of bonds in his possession, and Moore objects to telegraphing for him, as a witness lest "party capital should be made of it by the other side." You might give this reason, Mr. Moore, and swear to it until you were black in the face, and no three white men in the State would believe you, except perhaps the three Code Commissioners. Give other and better reasons, Mr. Moore, for opposing a resolution to summon by telegram men charged with fraud. If it suits your purposes better to give such frivolous and contemptible reasons, do so, and we will hold you up to the scorn and contempt of all good men. As to your confederate and assistant in this business, no one expected better from him, he could lose no character by opposing a duty so plain, positive, and commanding. We tell you now, Mr. Moore, we do not intend silently to see the State robbed of its property by Littlefield and the Ring, through the silence of the Governor, and the legislation of Sinclair, and his carpet-bag allies.

We tell you, Mr. Moore, the business we know you to be engaged in for the sale of the State's property in her various improvements, will cause honest men to look upon you with suspicion.

If you think you can follow Sinclair without a loss of character you are mistaken. If Father McNamara will allow you to read after what you are pleased to call heretics and dissenters, we call your attention to the Minutes of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, where the Rev. James Sinclair, who, with you opposed Malone's resolution, is charged with all manner of atrocious crimes against God, society and the law. He was dismissed from the ministry and admonished to mend his ways and his walk, but he has not done so.

The Legislature of which you are a leading member, Mr. Moore, is charged with prostituting itself to the purposes of Littlefield and the Ring. The corrupt influence of Littlefield and the Ring over the Legislature, to which you belong, will transmit it to posterity clothed with infamy and disgrace. All who defend, or throw obstacles in the way of the detection and exposure of the Ring swindles, will partake of their infamy and disgrace.

By Littlefield's influence, whisky, money, gold watches, and presents, brought to bear on the General Assembly, the honor, character, and credit of the State has been shamelessly prostituted. By Littlefield's money and prescats, an attempt, it is thought, will soon be made to sell the property of the State in lands and works of internal improvement, such as railroads and canals. The passage of Railroad bills appropriating $26,000,000 in bonds for their completion, was not the work of virtue and patriotism, but of prostitution and bribery. Littlefield is no longer able to enjoy the fruits of his prostitution, the bonds have perished in his hands. Now he is sick of bonds, he wants money and the State's property must be sold to gratify him. Holden's administration has been entrusted with $16,000,000 of new bonds for public works, and soon a bill will be introduced to sell the State's interest in railroads and canals, and the same administration entrusted with the money.

The Executive that sits by in silence at public robbery in bonds, will not cry out at public robbery of the treasury. When the work begins to sell the State's property to public robbers, we shall not be silent, but endeavor to drive the plunderers off and bring the thieves to justice.

MORE BRIBERY.

Some days ago a member of the Legislature was heard to say, he had been offered $2500 for his vote. We tell the "hands," who wish to sell, to hold themselves at higher rates.

It is commonly reported and generally believed, that Littlefield received $100,000 as Dr. Hawkins' agent and attorney to get $2,000,000 appropriated for the Chatham Road. The Doctor admits he was his agent, and he let him have $100,000 of State bonds at less than their value. It is the salvation of the Raleigh and Gaston Road to have the North Carolina Road sold, or leased, or some of its State stock sold, that the Raleigh and Gaston Road may have a controling influence in the North Carolina road.

If that can be done the Doctor, for his road, will make or save $80,000 a year; money which his road pays annually to the North Carolina road. This we say will be saved by the Doctor.

The question for the saleable hands to consider is, how much can they get for their votes. We have no idea that it was Dr. Hawkins, who offered $2500 for a vote, though according to his own evidence, he paid Littlefield $5000 for his services.—Now, a member who will sell, is a great fool to sell for $2500 when he knows $5000 have been paid to a man who had no vote, that he might buy others.

If Dr. Hawkins, as President of the Chatham road, could afford to pay $100,000 for a $2,000,000 appropriation to that road, be sure, as President of the Raleigh and Gaston, he can afford to pay $500,000 for the sale of the North Carolina. We say, no respectable "hand" should value his vote for the sale of that road at less than $10,000, and the chances are that he can get it. Any member who speaks as well as does Moore or Sinclair might get $50,000.

Hands, we tell you, this is the last chance for a fortune, let no man value himself too low.

The game is up, you will hardly be called upon to vote upon Barnett's bill; a substitute will be offered for that; that bill was only a tub to the whale.

Half million of dollars would be given as freely as $100,000 was given to Littlefield, to get a bill selling the State's property.

Hands, we say, elevate and estimate yourselves, and let no man sell for twenty-five hundred who is worth that many thousand!

EAGLES ON THE POST.

We publish to-day a communication from J. S. W. Eagles, one of the Representatives from New Hanover, in answer to some remarks of the Wilmington Post, of a recent date. We have nothing to do with any quarrel between Eagles and the Post, but publish the communication by request, as we would publish any other respectful communication, when we have the room.

We think, however, from the tone of the communication, that the writer has formed a pretty just estimate of the Post and carpet-baggers generally, who have, for some time, "had their fingers in the eyes" of the colored people, and have had but little other regard for them than to "crawl into office over their backs."

The idea that the thirty-one millions of whites will, when they have no further use for the "fragment" of colored voters, kick them out of the way, which seems to be the inference that Eagles draws from the article of the Post, shows, at least, very ungratefully on the part of those who have "come here" and "rode into office over the colored man's back."

The Southern people have never been profuse in their professions and protestations toward the colored race; they have never promised them "forty acres and a mule," nor anything of that sort, but the new comers to this latitude very much mistake the temper and design of Southern people if they think they could be induced on account of superiority of numbers, to inflict any wrong on the colored race, or deprive them of the least of their rights, although they might be a "fragment," so small as to compare no more than one to ten thousand; and the colored people will find, should the time ever come to test it, that they will have no firmer defenders of their rights before the law than the native citizens of the South.

ORANGE COURT.

The Editor is at home in attendance on Orange Court. He writes that there is no Court, as usual, for want of a Judge. Tourgee, the Judge, and Dennis Hanes, are both absent. Dennis, is the freedman twice convicted, by a jury, for larceny, and so often has the Judge set the verdict aside. At the last Court the Judge not only set the verdict aside, but did not require the defendant to give bail.

Tourgee was Governor Holden's predecessor as President of the League, which may account for some of his strange actions. The Blalock murderers will be for trial; John Ledbetter, who sports the great seal of the State in jail, will be for trial, also. John has a good chance for clemency, for if Tourgee does not set aside the verdict, there is another chance that the Governor will pardon.

(Reported expressly for the SENTINEL by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.)

DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

On Monday the 31st January, the following decisions were rendered:

In Smithdeal vs. Smith, Rowan, suit for Partition of Real Estate.

PEARSON, Ch. J:—No error. Judgment affirmed.

2. Land cannot pass by a non-cupative will.

3. The word "estate" in the act in regard to non cupative wills, Rev. Code Chap. 119, Sec. 11, does not embrace land; for although the word, in its general sense is broad enough to include land, yet it is obviously not used in the Statute in so broad a sense.

Hogan vs. Strayhorn, Orange, suit to recover the possession of land.

PEARSON, Ch. J:—No error. Judgment affirmed.

3. Livery of deeds having been abolished by act of 1715, Rev. Stat. Ch. 37, Sec. 1, no actual, external ceremony, except the formal delivery of the deed, is now required to pass the title to land.

3. A Deed for the conveyance of lands cannot take effect as a deed of bargain and sale, without a valuable consideration.

4. In a deed of trust it is not sufficient merely to recite the desire of the grantor or the general object of the trust; but the formal declaration of trust must be plainly set forth in the deed. An omission to do this is fatal, even though the omission be caused by the ignorance or mistake of the draftsman.

5. The idea that the payment of the cost and expense of making a deed is a sufficient consideration to support it, is a legal absurdity.

McKeithan vs. McLeod, Cumberland.

READE, J:—Error in refusing the rule.—[The opinion in this case will appear in a subsequent issue of the SENTINEL, as it is an important decision respecting the Homestead Exemption.]

Bost vs. Mingers, Rowan.

READE, J:—No error. Judgment affirmed. [This was a suit to recover damages for the killing of a Chester Boar. As it is a very interesting and amusing case, the opinion of his Honor will be published in full this week.]

Meroney vs. Avery, Rowan, action of Assumpsit (old system.)

RODMAN, J:—No error. Judgment affirmed.

The Plaintiff was an incompetent witness to any transaction or communication with the testator of the Defendant. C. C. P. S. 343.

The objection was waived by not being taken in due time; an objection must be taken as soon as its existence becomes known.

Mary Ann Moore, Executrix, Ex parte, Rockingham, application for Dower.

RODMAN, J:—ERROR. Judgment reversed.

2. When a widow, executrix and sole legatee, makes application for dower, under Rev. Code, Chap. 118, Sec. 8, creditors have a right to be made parties to the proceeding, in order to resist the rendition of judgment, or to object to an excessive allotment of dower.

3. A creditor is "one aggrieved" by an excessive allotment of dower; and is embraced in the remainder of the clause, "any person who has an interest in the controversy adverse to the Plaintiff." C. C. P. Sect 61.

4 Lowery vs. Lowery, decided at this term has no bearing on this case; the point there decided was, that the appeal by Goins did not carry up the judgment for dower.

Whitsell vs. Mebane, Alamance, action of Debt.

DICK, J:—Error, venire de novo.

2. To determine whether a bond declared on was properly delivered the intention of the obligor must be ascertained from the facts attending the transaction.

3. The burden of proof of the formal execution of a deed is upon the person who claims under it, and he must aver and prove the performance of conditions precedent.

Sowers vs. Earnhardt, Davidson, suit on a bond for $1,000, dated Nov. 18, 1862.

DICK, J:—No error. Judgment affirmed.

1. By presumption of law this note was solvable in Confederate money.

2. Evidence of the collateral parol agreement, that the note was to be paid "in good money after the war," was properly admitted to the jury.

3. The terms of this collateral contract do not vary the written contract, but explain it in the manner provided for by the remedial statutes.

4. When words taken in one sense, will materially change the contract and defeat the object of a remedial statute, while they are susceptible of another construction which will give substantial effect to the agreement of the parties, and to a beneficial statute, the latter construction ought to be preferred.

State vs. Mooney, Guilford, assault and battery.

SETTLE, J.—Error. Venire de novo.

1. Where father and son are indicted together for a misdemeanor, and the wife of the father is called as a witness for the son, held, that if the acquittal of the son would in legal effect be the acquittal of the father, the wife's testimony is inadmissible, for she would be testifying in behalf of her husband.

2. But in misdemeanors, where two are indicted for the same offence, the acquittal of one, the principal actor, is not of necessity and in legal effect, the acquittal of the other, the aider and abettor.

Kesler vs. Hall, from Rowan, action of debt for $1,250.

SETTLE, J.—No error, judgment affirmed.

Where an Executor executed a bond to an Attorney for professional services rendered in managing the estate of the Executor's testator, held that the debt is the individual debt of the Executor, and not a debt of the testator—and that the Executor is personally liable, and not the estate of the testator.

Parol evidence offered by defendant to show that it was agreed, by the Executor and the Attorney, that the bond was to be paid out of the assets of the testator, is inadmissible, and was properly rejected.

The Ord. of Oct. 18, 1865, and the acts of 1866, chap. 38, 39, have no application to this case.

"Death Loves a Shining Mark."—Grief and sadness pierced many hearts in this city, yesterday morning, when the intelligence came that Blanche, the beloved wife of our young fellow citizen, Andrew Syme, Esq., was dead. She was the eldest daughter of Hon. Thomas Bragg, the idol of husband and parents, and cherished and loved by brothers, sisters, and a large circle of friends.

But one short year a happy bride, with all life's hopes and promises bright before her, now, gone from the embrace and converse of friends on earth to the association of angels in the better land.

The tears of many friends will mingle with those of relatives, and the sympathy of the entire community is theirs, in this hour of their deep bereavement.

High Farming in Wake.—We copied a paragraph some time since, from the Washington Eastern Intelligencer, of a Mr. Archibald and his two little sons, who made, last year, 9 bales of cotton and 110 barrels of corn, besides peas, potatoes &c., and asked who could beat it?

The inquiry has led to the discovery of the individual, in the person of Capt. W. E. Pierce, of Ramsgate (commonly called Ramcat) district, in Wake county.

Capt. Pierce, with two horses worked by white labor, made,

21 bales cotton av. 425 lbs—8925 at 22½c	$2008 12
140 barrels—700 bushels corn at $1.25	875 00
Total	$2,883 12
Average to the plow	$1,441 56

On another part of his farm, superintended by himself, with two mules, worked by colored labor, he made

9 bales cotton av. 425—3825 lbs at 22½	$860,62
100 barrels—500 bushels corn at $1,25,	625,00
Total	$1485,62
Or average to the plow	742,81
Total crop of 4 ploughs, value	$4,408,75

We ask again and, in reference to this, who can beat it?

Deferential.—Cook, of Johnston, made a five minutes speech in the Senate, yesterday, and said "Sir," seventeen times. That, we should call, excessive deference, (or reverence) to "Mars Todd."

Trim the Trees.—No one can pass through the streets of our city without noticing how sadly the trees need trimming. Straggling, deformed and decayed branches mar the beauty and symmetry of the trees, except in a few instances where some persons have had the good taste and public spirit to give some attention to the trees in front of their premises.

We don't know whose duty it is to attend to this matter; but if ought to be attended to, unless we would have strangers coming to the city suppose that we are dead or gone from home, or very indifferent to appearances.

More Fires.—A letter from Hendersonville to a gentleman in this city says: "Col. V. Ripley's stables and corn cribs were burned last night (27th Jan.) with ten or fifteen thousand pounds of hay, and some eight hundred or a thousand bushels of corn. We had hard work to save the balance of the lower end of the town (Hendersonvik). Fears are entertained that it was the work of an incendiary."

A Favorable Notoriety.—The good reputation and extended use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases has caused the Troches to be extensively imitated. Obtain only the genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches" and do not be influenced by those who make more profit by selling worthless imitations.

jan 30-eod1w

The People's New Discovery.—The public have discovered that there is one preparation, and only one, by which gray hair can be reinvested with the tinge that nature bestowed upon it without staining the skin. They see that Phelon's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair, is transparent, and produces richer brown and black than any of the offensive dyes. Sold by all druggists.

For the Sentinel.

Raleigh, Jan. 31, 1870.

Mr. Editor: Dear Sir—I see an article in the Wilmington Post, headed "The Question of Color." The editor of that sheet says that he always advocated the adoption of the 15th amendment, and then goes on to say that the thirty six millions of whites will never permit the fragment of four millions to depose the doctrine that intelligence must rule. I, Mr. Editor, would like to know when he ever heard the negro, as he calls us, say any such thing? And furthermore, I would like to know who ever arrayed the colored people against one portion of the whites. I, Sir, will leave that question for the redoubtable editor to decide. I suppose, Mr. Editor, you know who I mean, I mean the redoubtable editor of the Post.

I guess Mr. Editor, he is like the rest of these strangers that come down here, they stay a little while and if the black people don't give them an office they call us ignorant, but they have suck their fingers in our eyes long enough, and if they expect to ride into office on our backs all the time and leave us nothing they are very much mistaken. Yes Mr. Editor, and when we refuse to put them in office, they call us the "fragment of four millions," and more than that, they call us ignorant. Now let the gentleman reply, and tell the colored people what he means. I Sir as a representative of New Hanover and a North Carolinian demand it. I hope the people will not understand me to have a prejudice toward Northern men, but I do protest against such slander. I am Sir,

Very Respectfully,
J. S. W. EAGLES.

[Reported for the Sentinel by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.]

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, February, 1st.—Court assembled at the usual hour. Cases from the 10th District were called, and argued, as follows:

McKesson and Hunt vs. Jones, Mendenhall and Carter, from Burke, Col. G. N. Folk, for the plaintiff—J. M. Clement, Esq., for defendant.

Correna M. Avery, et al, ex parte, from Burke. Battle & Sons for petitioner.

Hays vs Hays from Caldwell, Col. Folk for Plaintiff, W. M. Malone, Esq., for Defendant.

Dalton vs. Pendleton from Iredell, Clement and W. P. Caldwell for Plaintiff, Boyden and Bailey and D. M. Furches for Defendant.

Nothing else of any interest transpired in Court to-day, Court adjourned at 1, P. M.

We clip the following from the Florence (Ala.) Journal, of the 27th January:

Personal.—We have had the extreme pleasure during the present week, of meeting Messrs. Satterthwaite and Carrow of Washington, N. C. These two gentlemen are on a visit to Florence, for the purpose of attending to matters connected with an estate in Landerdale county. Mr. Satterthwaite is one of the leading lawyers in Eastern North Carolina; Mr. Carrow is one of Carolina's stanchest farmers; and they represent well, the dignity and worth of the Good Old North State. We bid them in the name of our community, a most hearty welcome to the proverbial hospitalities of Florence.

Prof. McWatt, Lecturer and operator on boot and shoeology, has removed his office and lecture room, alias, shoe shop, to the room over Messrs. W. B. Hutchings & Co's., Harness establishment, where he is prepared to take measures and put up shoes, boots, gaiters &c., in quality and workmanship unsurpassed in this region.—Let those who may doubt this give him a call and they will be convinced; those who do not dount it will, of course, call any how.

The Infirmities of Age.

Decrepitude is the natural accompaniment of old age, but it may be ameliorated, and the period of entire helplessness long postponed by the judicious use of a healthful stimulant.—Physicians, fully aware of this fact usually recommend moderate stimulation when the strength and vigor of mat rity have been suspended by the feebleness and prostration which are the inevitable results of declining years. Port wine, gin, brandy, and other liquors are often prescribed by medical men for aged persons, but the impulse which fermented and distilled liquors give to the circulation, and the energy they seem to impart, is transitory, unless the alcoholic principle is modified and qualified by the presence of medicinal tonics and invigorants. Of all the combinations of diffusive stimuli with the juices of herbs, roots and barks that have ever been administered to the aged and infirm, with the view of sustaining their waning strength, cheering their drooping spirits and relieving the aches and pains to which they are subjected, none has been found so efficacious, so agreeable and so permanent in its effects as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The difference between the effect of the Bitters and that of a mere excitant however pure, is the same as between the effect of a sudden and momentary application of excessive force to a given purpose, and the result of a steady, continuous application of exactly the requisite amount of force to the same end. The mere spirit of physical energy produced by a dram (and which is always succeeded by corresponding depression) never yet benefitted any man or woman suffering from physical decay. A cordial like Hostetter's Bitters at once soothing and invigorating, is the remedial agent required.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan. 31.—It is stated that the President will nominate Judge Strong of Pa., tomorrow, in Stanton's place.

The Gold investigation continues. Opdyke testified to day.

The Joint Retrenchment Committee is considering the transfer of the Freedmen's Bureau education work to the Board of Education, to which Gen. Eaton was recently appointed.

Revenue to-day over a million and a quarter. For the month, nearly twelve millions and a half.

A general order has been issued creating the department of Virginia, with headquarters at Richmond, Gen. Canby commanding. The district comprises Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina.

In the Senate the bill reorganizing the marine hospital laws was introduced.

Sherman presented the Ohio ratification of the 15th amendment.

Morton's bill admitting Mississippi contains the Virginia restrictions, except that no oath is enacted from the State Legislators.

The currency was resumed in the Senate, among other things it provides $45 000,00 additional currency to the South and West.

Several resolutions of enquiry about Georgia were introduced.

In the House the resolution declaring the five-twenties payable in greenbacks, and censuring the administration for buying five twenties at a premium, was tabled by a vote of 124 to 41.

The President was asked for all the papers in the Yerger case.

Ayer and McKenzie from Virginia were seated.

FOREIGN.

Madrid, Jan. 31.—In the cortes, Figueras defended the recent insurrections as all people maintain their rights. He asserted that the killing the so-called insurgents by the government was simply assassination. Prim demanded a retraction, which being refused, a duel is threatened.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The Mexican claims Commission has adjourned to the first Monday in June, the time required for obtaining rebutting testimony.

In a case from Missouri involving liability for seizure of property by officers, the Supreme Court holds that a State may enact retroactive laws when not inhibited by its Constitution, and not in violation of the Federal Constitution in relation to ex post facto legislation.

The elections committee have finally voted to oust Green and seat Van Wyck. The House is discussing Booker vs Tucker from Va.

In the Senate Salisbury presented a petition to restore the government to the white race.

The Mississippi bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee, which involves delay.

An Inquest.—The body of a man very much decomposed, was found in the Northeast branch of the Cape Fear River about four miles from this city, yesterday morning. It was discovered by a colored man who was passing in a canoe, and is supposed to be that of Cetus Herring, colored, who fell from a raft at the foot of Dock street some weeks ago. The body, however, was in such a condition, owing to the length of time it had been in the water, that it was impossible for any one to identify it. Coroner Allen held an inquest over it yesterday afternoon and the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.—Wil. Star, Jan. 31.

Wilmington, C. & R. Railroad.—We are gratified to learn that a corps of engineers are on this line west of Shelby, and will soon arrive at this place, making a permanent survey and location of the line. The Depot is nearly finished at Shelby, and the work beyond is progressing satisfactorily. The great trouble is the disposal of the State bonds, wherewith to raise funds to buy the iron and bridges. We sincerely hope that something may turn up to enable the Company to go on and complete this important work. When the Road is finished to Rutherford, our prosperity will commence as an agricultural people, and until then onethird the profits of our crops will be eaten up in transporting our surplus to market—our young men will be discouraged—and the fever of emigration, now alarming, will carry off hundreds to other States where railroads are building up and enriching the people.—Rutherford Vindicator.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcular Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

F. J WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. AL. BRIDGE PARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with our old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

HENRY'S CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR, OR BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous corpse.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both he ame in acted alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Check,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered torturers with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Reader, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and purest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public, and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent imitations, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Ordinary Tin Oil Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we WARRANT to be and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Lebermann, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace Bermudas and across the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	62,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
